Network Leadership Council Vacancy Notice

The Network Leadership Council (NLC) is currently soliciting applications for a Sandhills Center provider to serve on the Council. In order to maintain appropriate provider representation on the Council, the vacancy to be filled is for an Agency providing comprehensive behavioral services to Sandhills Center members. In order to be considered, the provider must:

- Have a current contract and be in good standing with Sandhills Center
- Complete and submit the attached application no later than May 27, 2016.

The purpose of the Network Leadership Council is to:

- Ensure that provider perspective is represented in the Sandhills Center Health Network processes and operations and to assist in building and maintaining a diverse provider network that meets the requirements of the State
- Sandhills Center recognizes the importance of ensuring network provider input and participation in decision making in order to promote a collaborative environment between the LME/MCO and providers.

Thank you for your interest and we look forward to receiving your application.

You may send applications to Bonita H. Porter, Provider Network Operations Director:
